'Sparrow,' a captivating biography, delves into the extraordinary tale of this enigmatic figure, illuminating her indomitable spirit, her unwavering belief in her divine mission, and the immense impact she had on the course of history.

Chapter 1: The Call to Arms

Born in 1412 in the village of Domrémy, France, Joan was a deeply religious and sensitive young woman. At the age of 13, she began to experience visions of Saint Michael, Saint Margaret, and Saint Catherine, who instructed her to lead the French army to victory against the English invaders during the Hundred Years' War. Driven by an unwavering belief in her divine calling, Joan left her home and sought an audience with the Dauphin, the future King Charles VII.

Chapter 2: The Siege of Orleans

Despite initial skepticism, Joan's unwavering determination and charisma convinced the Dauphin to grant her a small force. In 1429, she led the French army to a stunning victory at the Siege of Orleans, breaking the English siege and turning the tide of the war. Joan's exceptional military skills and her ability to inspire her troops earned her the admiration and respect of both the French and English alike.

Chapter 3: The Trial and Execution

Following her triumph at Orleans, Joan continued to lead the French army to victory in a series of battles. However, her success and influence aroused envy and suspicion among some of the French court. In 1430, she was captured by the Burgundians and sold to the English. She was put on trial for heresy and witchcraft, and despite her eloquent defense, she was found guilty and sentenced to death. On May 30, 1431, Joan of Arc was burned at the stake in Rouen.

Chapter 4: Legacy and Impact

Joan of Arc's tragic death at the age of 19 did not diminish her legacy. She became a symbol of hope and inspiration for the French people and a timeless icon of courage, faith, and resilience. Her story has been told and retold countless times, inspiring books, films, and artworks. In 1920, she was canonized as a saint by the Catholic Church, and her feast day is celebrated on May 30.
