Explore Ancient Wonders

Athens, the Heart of Ancient Greece

No journey to Greece is complete without a visit to Athens, the birthplace of democracy and one of the world's most influential cities. Explore the Acropolis, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and marvel at the Parthenon, Erechtheion, and Propylaea. Wander through the ancient Agora, where Socrates once taught, and immerse yourself in the vibrant atmosphere of Monastiraki Square.

Delphi, the Oracle of the Gods

Nestled amidst the breathtaking scenery of Mount Parnassus, Delphi was the most sacred site in ancient Greece. Consult the Oracle of Delphi, whose prophecies shaped the destiny of nations. Admire the Temple of Apollo, Treasury of the Athenians, and Tholos, remnants of a glorious past that continue to inspire awe.

Peloponnese, Land of Mycenae and Sparta

Venture into the Peloponnese, a peninsula steeped in history and mythology. Visit Mycenae, the legendary city of Agamemnon, and explore its evocative ruins. Discover the ancient theater of Epidaurus, renowned for its exceptional acoustics. In Sparta, learn about the legendary warriors who once ruled Greece.

Discover Medieval and Modern Greece

Mystras, a Byzantine Jewel

Perched on a hilltop overlooking the Peloponnese, Mystras is a testament to the Byzantine Empire's architectural and artistic prowess. Explore its fortified walls, churches, and monasteries, and immerse yourself in the grandeur of a bygone era.

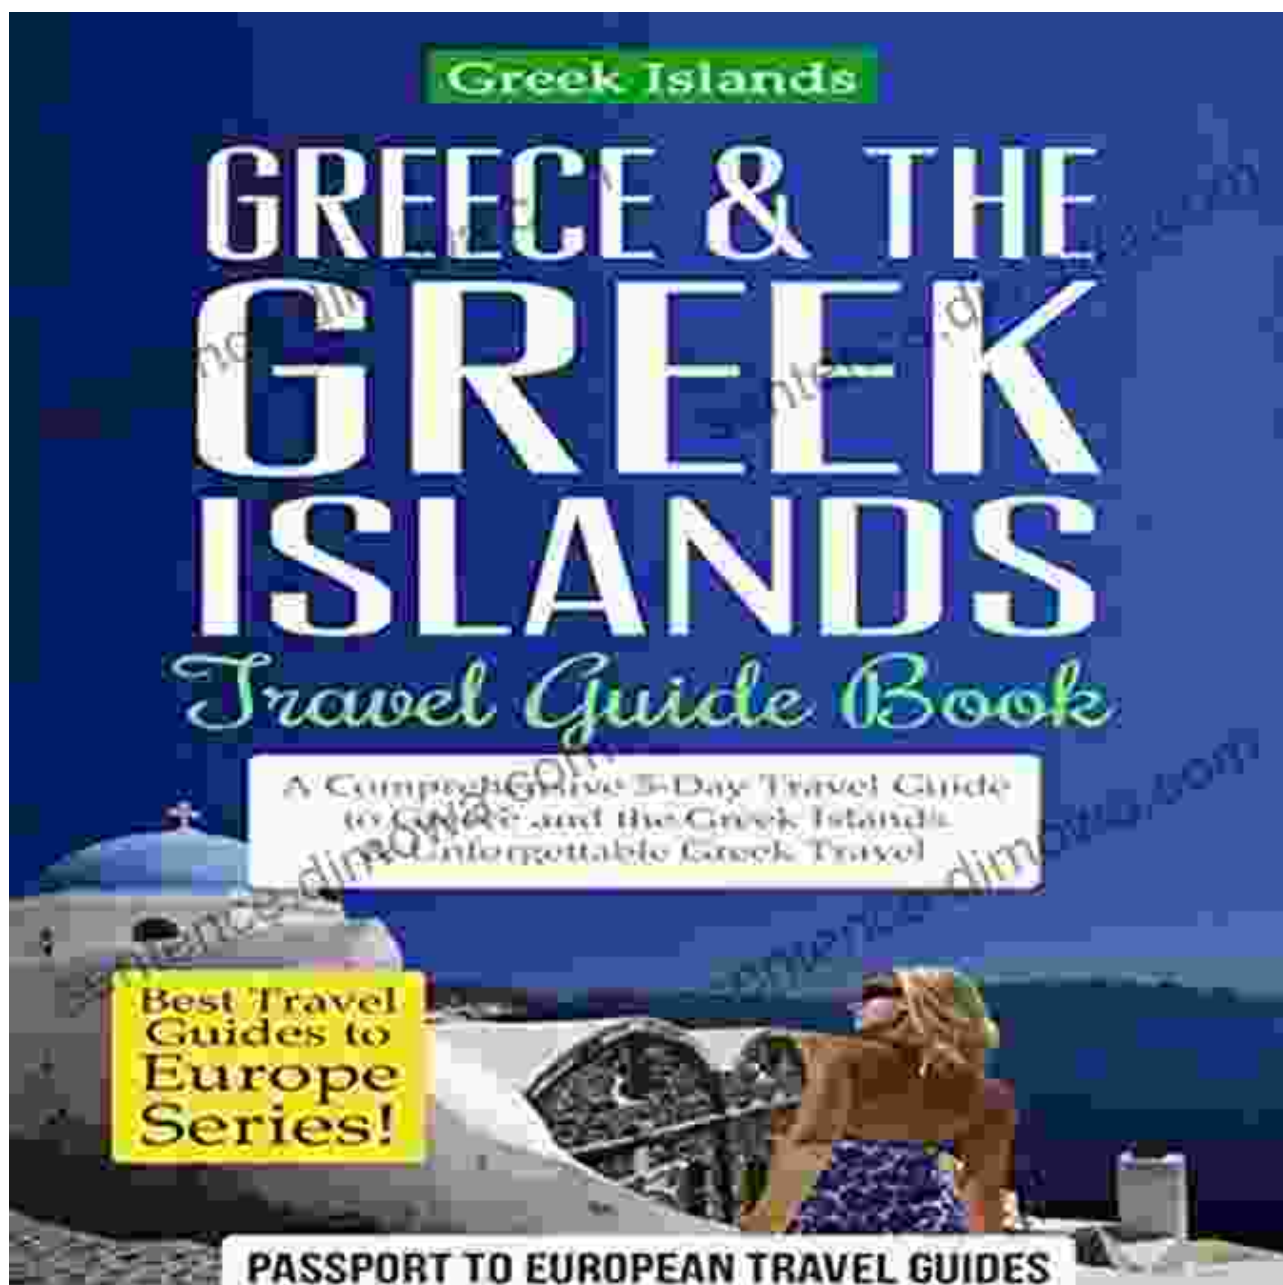

Thessaloniki, a Crossroads of Cultures

Thessaloniki, Greece's second largest city, boasts a rich and diverse history. Visit the White Tower, a symbol of the city's Ottoman past. Explore the vibrant Jewish Quarter and the Archaeological Museum, which houses a vast collection of artifacts from Greece's ancient and medieval periods.

Santorini, a Volcanic Paradise

Beyond its stunning caldera and picturesque villages, Santorini conceals a wealth of history. Akrotiri, a Minoan settlement buried by a volcanic eruption, offers a glimpse into a lost civilization. Visit the ancient city of Thera, founded by Dorian Greeks, and admire its well-preserved ruins.
