Unveiling the Unseen

Dutton's poems traverse the shadowy realms of the internet, where anonymity breeds darkness. She deftly weaves words into a tapestry that exposes the insidious nature of online surveillance, cyberbullying, and digital addiction. "Dark Traffic Poems" illuminates the hidden corners of cyberspace, shedding light on the unsettling truths we often choose to ignore.

Exploring the Digital Abyss

This groundbreaking collection doesn't shy away from the darker impulses that technology can unleash. Dutton confronts the psychological impact of online anonymity, revealing how it can empower trolls and perpetuate hate speech. She uncovers the insidious nature of cyberbullying, exposing the devastating consequences it can have on vulnerable individuals.

An Ode to the Complexities of Technology

"Dark Traffic Poems" is not simply a condemnation of the internet. Dutton recognizes the complexities of technology and its potential for good. She explores the transformative power of online activism and the ways in which the internet can connect people and foster a sense of community. Her poems navigate the tensions between the liberating and the oppressive aspects of cyberspace, presenting a nuanced perspective on our digital world.

Haunting and Unforgettable

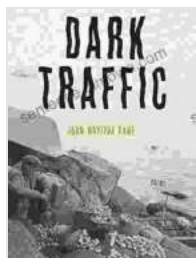

With lyrical precision and a profound understanding of human nature, "Dark Traffic Poems" is a haunting and unforgettable collection. Dutton's words reverberate with a chilling urgency, reminding us that the shadows of the internet are not just virtual but have real-world consequences. This is a must-read for anyone grappling with the complexities of our digital age.
